Dear Brothers & Sisters,

We are counting down to July 16, 2019 which will kick off our 36th Quadrennial ACD Convention at The Diplomat Beach Resort in Hollywood, FL. We have an exciting week planned and we need everyone to get their registrations completed via the online website(s) to ensure the enjoyment of all attendees. Please note that delegates must still mail the completed credentials to the International by July 1, 2019. All registrations are subject to the International's approval upon the receipt of all required paperwork. The links for the Convention registration websites are below.

Please note that if you are attending BOTH the ILA and the ACD Conventions, you must register on BOTH websites.

To be granted entry into the Convention, the following paperwork must be submitted to the International:

1. Convention Credentials – Retain original and send copy to the International. Deadline for submission to the International: July 1, 2019
2. Certification of Membership (Audit) – If reporting over 100 members, a certified public accountant must sign the certification or the report will be rejected. Deadline for submission to the International: June 1, 2019
3. Each local union with more than 100 members must provide to the International a copy of the local union's or affiliate's signed and filed U.S. Department of Labor LM reporting form for the preceding two (2) years. Deadline for submission to the International: June 1, 2019.

REGISTER NOW!

If you experience any problems with completing your registration, please contact the ILA Registration Office for assistance.
