International Dockworkers Council Spotlight

International Dockworkers Council (IDC) is a Union federation made up of over 120.000 dockworkers in organizations from around the world. IDC represents a strong and stable voice for union organizations

The IDC audience held a historic meeting with Pope Francis in the Vatican on Wednesday January 10, 2024

- International delegation was led by the IDC General Coordinator, Dennis A. Daggett, and the IDC Labor Coordinator, Jordi Aragunde
 - Pope Francis' approach on the right to housing, work and land, inspired the IDC to create a joint working group with the Episcopal Conference to support communities and port workers.
 - From this the IDC created relations with the Pontifical Universities for union and labor training of workers
