Re: Negotiations and Labor Strife in the Port of Montreal

Dear President Lapierre:

On this second day of the general strike in the Port of Montreal, I felt the need to reiterate the continued support of the International Longshoremen's Association and its local affiliate for CUPE Local 375 in its ongoing negotiations with the Maritime Employers Association.

Though the Maritime Employers Association persists in rejecting your demands to improve the working conditions within the Port, I know that CUPE Local 375 will remain strong for the hard-working longshore men and women that it represents. I am certain that ILA Local 1657 and the ILA's other local union affiliates throughout Canada share this feeling of solidarity with me, and will continue to do whatever they can to support CUPE Local 375 in this dispute.

Fraternally yours,

Harold J. Daggett
President
